IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that a court may suspend court costs for which a person is liable due to a violation of the requirement that a vehicle parked on a roadway with an adjacent curb must be parked with the vehicle's right-hand wheels parallel with and within 12 inches of the right-hand curb.

Effective Date: July 1, 2013.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues: The number of violations related to angled parking and the number of courts which might suspend these fees are not known. The amount of revenue loss will depend on the actions of the courts. The following table shows the nine fees that can be charged for a parking infraction. The proceeds from these fees are deposited into the state General Fund, except for the revenues from the Automated Recordkeeping Fee that are deposited in the State User Fee Fund.

Fees Charged for Violating a Parking Ordinance
Infraction or Ordinance Violation Costs Fee	$70
Law Enforcement and Continuing Education Fee	$4
Document Storage Fee	$2
